

TWENTY-TWENTY VISION Inspiration for Elul

Sun 30th Aug – 8pm • Shoshanna Keats Jaskoll

How to maintain a healthy, sustainable, moderate frum society in the face of growing extremism?

Shoshanna Keats Jaskoll writes for a wide range of publications including The Times of Israel, The Jewish Chronicle and Tablet. She is a founding member of Chochmat Nashim, an organization dedicated to positive change in the Jewish community.

Sun 6th Sept – 8pm • Dr Tamara Spitz

Communal isolation: The importance of the individual and the community in Judaism.

Tamara Spitz is the Dean of Students and Mashgicha Ruchanit of Midreshet Torah VAvodah. She runs a chiropractic practice specializing in women's health in Gush Etzion. She was previously the Jewish Studies Principal of Instituto Yavne, one of the main Jewish day schools of Montevideo, Uruguay.

Tues 8th Sept – 8pm • Rabbi Johnny Solomon and Donna Solomon

Reconciliation: Who should take the first step?

Rav Johnny Solomon has an MA in Jewish Education, and semicha from the Montefiore Kollel (London). He has held numerous senior positions including Head of Judaic Studies at Immanuel College and Hasmonean Girls' School. Now living in Israel, he teaches at Machon Ma'ayan and Midreshet Torat Chesed, as well as working as a Jewish Education Consultant.

Tues 15th Sept – 8pm • Rabbi Ron Yitzchok Eisenman

Do you always have to forgive?

Rav Ron Yitzchok Eisenman has led Congregation Ahavas Israel since 1997, is currently an adjunct professor in Judaic Studies at Lander College for Women in Manhattan. He is an accomplished author and sought-after international speaker.

Tues 22nd Sept – 8pm • Dr Ora Wiskind-Elper

The art of seeing beyond: 'Reality' through the spectrum of Hasidic teachings

Ora Wiskind-Elper holds a PhD in Hebrew Literature from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. She is an author, specialising in Hasidism, and associate professor at Michlalah Jerusalem College and at Ono Academic College, Israel.

For Zoom link please email marketing@ahavatyisrael.org.uk

